

I definitely do not want banks or any other telemarketers calling my home. There are enough resources available for me to seek out those whom I may require information and or services from. Leave the no call list in tack as it is.